

Yvette Gavin Bio

Released July 2017

For all inquiries contact: nancy@yvettegavin.com

Yvette Gavin is an elite business development strategist, certified trainer, international speaker and the founder of Yvette Gavin Consulting LLC. She is notably known for her work with the United State Government, her facilitation of leadership workshops for the U. S Consulate in Brazil and The Georgia National Guard, and her overall ability to build thriving workplaces through dynamic training programs. Yvette is known for her ability to build high-performing Information Technology (IT) teams that deliver exceptional quality. She has held progressive leadership roles at Lockheed-Martin Aeronautical, Delta Air Lines, AT&T, Cbeyond and Cox Communications. Yvette Gavin is an expert in growing small and large companies and navigating careers across changing landscapes which she outlines in one of her books entitled Recalibrate! Navigating The Job Market with Confidence.

Yvette holds a B.S. degree in Communication from Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, OK, and is the recipient of various leadership and community awards. She received the Leadership Excellence Coin from the 78th Aviation Troop Command for her dedication to providing relationship training to Georgia's Soldiers, she is the recipient of the State of Georgia Governor's Award for Outstanding Leadership and has received numerous leadership and process improvement awards from various fortune 500 companies

In addition to being a respected business strategist and career advisor, Yvette is a Black Enterprise Magazine Contributor and a BOSS NETWORK Influencer. She is also a former reporter for the Atlanta Journal Constitution and the Birmingham (ALA) News, as well as, a CNN Headline News (HLN) editor and manager of the Southeastern Bureau. She is an accomplished author, a certified Prevention and Relationship Enhancement Program (PREP) facilitator; a certified life coach from the International Christian Coaching Association (ICCA); and a John C. Maxwell certified trainer, speaker, and coach. In addition to writing Recalibrate! Navigating The Job Market with Confidence, she also authored What to Do After You Say I Do, combining her passion and experience of building thriving workplace and personal relationships. As a leadership expert, Yvette has spoken at multiple conferences and appeared on radio and television programs as an advisor. Additionally, the Georgia National Guard Chaplaincy Corp bestowed upon Yvette the Exemplary Performance Award while serving as an instructor for the Strong Bonds Marriage Conference. Her overall goal is to help others achieve their highest potential in their business, spiritual, and personal life.

Yvette's career and life's work covers a broad spectrum of successes that speaks highly of her talent and commitment to excellence. Remaining consistent with her deep conviction and passion to help others grow; Mrs. Gavin is currently accepting opportunities as a keynote speaker for female empowerment and inspirational conferences. Her goal with every speaking opportunity is to educate, inspire and empower. For more information about Yvette Gavin visit www.YvetteGavin.com. For all inquiries contact nancy@yvettegavin.com.